Dear Parishioners:

It's Super Bowl Sunday! Get out the chips and dip. Is the chili filling the bowls? Is the HD TV as sharp as ever, bringing the action into your home? Are you in a pool that might pay off at the end of each quarter?

America loves this day. Perhaps it is the secular equivalent to our Catholic celebration of Easter. Everybody is watching, even those who don't much care about football for the rest of the year. Families and friends gather in joy to celebrate together. Good and evil (depending on who you are rooting for) will tussle. And we are all watching to see who wins. On Easter, of course, we know the adversaries: Satan and violence vs. God's own vulnerable and loving Son. Although Good Friday might suggest that Satan and violence have won the first half, we are well aware by the "third day" who wins. This knowledge, if nothing else, reassures us of whom our favorite ought to be – the way of Jesus Christ and not the lure of pleasure or consumerism or the evil of being disheartened by the existence of sickness and ungodly treatment all around us.

Half the fun of watching the Super Bowl is watching the commercials. Some are legendarily clever and delight us. Others are shamefully self-promotional. But watch with a critical eye. Don't some carry the underdog theme of overcoming (a bit of David vs. Goliath)? And others reveal a hint of striving to be better than who we are? Our critical abilities ought to see the religious stories of "fall" and "redemption" that often underlie the storyline of these very expensive advertisements.

I'm looking forward to watching the game. As any good liturgy it starts with an opening hymn (Star Spangled Banner) and procession. (Isn't the precise timing of the jet fly by a high tech version of our cross and candles?). The Liturgy of the Word consists of the commentators recalling some of the great stories of previous Super Bowls. The collection occurs based on the type of "pool" being held. The Big Half Time show is the musical accompaniment and the meal allows us communion. And at the very end, the champion is blessed with the Lombardi trophy.

It is my hope that you enjoy the "liturgy" of the Super Bowl. But even more so, I hope that you might notice some of the deeper, valuable human themes that sneak their way into this ultimate secular celebration, because it is my belief that the divine or the sacred is often revealed from within that which is most secular.

With God all things are possible,

Mmgr. Dick Martini

Monsignor Richard Martini

YEAR OF FAITH CORNER

The five pastoral priorities that Archbishop Gomez outlined in his Pastoral Letter on the New Evangelization in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles are:

1. Education in the faith
2. Promote vocations to the priesthood and to religious and consecrated life
3. Foster our universal Catholic identity and cultural diversity
4. Proclaim the Gospel of life and promote a culture of life
5. Defend and strengthen marriage and the family

This week we discuss the first priority of education in the faith.

We've all heard the saying, "You learn something new every day." This also applies to our faith. No matter where we are in our faith journey, there is always something more that we can learn about our faith. Archbishop Gomez calls us to learn "what we believe as Catholics and why we believe these things. Let us also learn what difference these beliefs should make in our lives and in our world."

YEAR OF FAITH 2012

He encourages us to do this is by learning about new ways of praying, especially with the Gospels, and developing "the habit of life-long learning in our faith."

The Second Vatican Council tells us that we all are called to holiness, to be set apart for God. In other words, we are meant to be saints. So how can we grow in holiness and become living saints? One way is by learning how to deepen our relationship with God through prayer and by learning about what He calls us to do and why.

Over the next few weeks we will continue these brief discussions about each of these priorities and how we, the People of God in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, can live these out.

You can find this Pastoral Letter by going to the Archdiocesan website www.la-archdiocese.org and click on the link on the right of the page entitled "Archbishop's Pastoral Letter."

THIS FEBRUARY...

2013 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL "TOGETHER IN MISSION"

"Love never fails." 1Cor 13:8

This is the 2013 theme for the annual Archdiocese's Together in Mission Campaign. At OLPH, our mission is to offer love, prayer and hope. We can show our belief in our mission through support of this appeal. It annually provides funds to 35 parishes and 52 schools in Los Angeles that would find it difficult, if not impossible, to operate without them. We are fortunate in the Santa Clarita Valley to enjoy well maintained parishes and schools, let's make a difference in the lives of our fellow Catholics who do not!

This weekend and on the weekend of February 9th and 10th, we will be given the opportunity at Mass to support this campaign. As you assess and reflect whether to pledge or on the amount of a pledge to be made, please discern the following questions:

1. Do I believe that I have a duty to help others in need?
2. Is what I give to the work of the Church enough to show how grateful I am for what God has given me?
3. Do I appreciate how important every contribution to Together in Mission is to the people of the subsidized parishes and schools?

May the Holy Spirit guide you as you consider the above questions and may you give in accordance with what God has given you.

BLOODMOBILE HERE FEBRUARY 17

The Bloodmobile from Providence Holy Cross Hospital will be here in the parish on Sunday, February 17th, to give you an opportunity to donate blood and help save lives.

FILIPINO FOOD SALE NEXT SUNDAY

Don't cook next Sunday, February 10th. Let our Filipino Community prepare your lunch or dinner. Visit them by the garage between 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and get some of their delicious food to take home and enjoy. The proceeds of the sale will be used for our church's sound system.

BACKGROUND CHECKS AND SCREENING

"In the Los Angeles Archdiocese, all clergy, paid parish/school personnel and volunteers who work regularly in a supervisory role with children or youth must be fingerprinted. For information call: 213-637-7411." From the pamphlet, "Working Together to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse: Keeping Ministerial Relationships Healthy & Holy," published by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. UNA MISIÓN CONTINUA

En la sinagoga de su pueblo natal, los vecinos se maravillaban con las palabras de Jesús. No obstante, se preguntaban: “¿No es este el hijo de José?”

Con seguridad la gente sabía quién era Jesús. El hijo del carpintero. El joven que aprendió en esa misma sinagoga. El muchacho de la calle.

El conflicto surge cuando Jesús empieza a definirse de una manera nueva. Las tensiones aumentan cuando se compara con los antiguos profetas Elías y Eliseo. Las tensiones se multiplican cuando Jesús empieza a hablar de una nueva misión para el pueblo de Dios: la Buena Nueva de la Escritura está dirigida a todos.

En su famoso pasaje de la primera carta a los Corintios, san Pablo nos recuerda la naturaleza del amor eterno. El amor no termina. En la lectura de hoy, se nos recuerda que, como el amor, la misión de Jesús no se puede detener. Jesús se desliza entre la multitud de perseguidores y sigue adelante con nuevos retos. Estamos llamados a esta misma perseverancia en nombre del amor.

MISA Y LA UNCIÓN DE LOS ENFERMOS EN LA CATEDRAL EL 9 DE FEBRERO

¿Conoce usted a alguien que se enfrenta a una cirugía, o una persona mayor o niño que está enfermo? Se recomienda llevarlos a la Catedral de Nuestra Señora de los Ángeles para recibir el Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos el sábado, 9 de febrero de 2013, a las 10:00 a.m. A través de la unción, la gracia del Espíritu Santo consuela y fortalece el alma de la persona enferma. La Misa y la unción de los enfermos son organizadas conjuntamente por la Catedral y la Asociación Occidental de la Orden de Malta en celebración del Día Mundial de los Enfermos de 2013. El Arzobispo José H. Gomez presidirá la Misa y la unción, que se celebrará en el día de la Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes. Para obtener más información, por favor comuníquese con Joseph Sanders, sanders.joseph.c@gmail.com, o Jim Sarnim jsarni@Payden-Rygel.com.

AÑO DE LA FE

Las cinco prioridades que el Arzobispo Gómez ha señalado en la Carta Pastoral sobre la Nueva Evangelización en nuestra Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles son:

Formación en la Fe.

Promoción de las vocaciones al Sacerdicio, vida Religiosa y Consagrada.

Fomentar nuestra identidad católica y la diversidad cultural.

Proclamar el Evangelio que da vida y promover una cultura de Vida.

Defender y fortalecer el matrimonio y la familia.

Esta semana estamos promoviendo la primera prioridad de Formación en la fe.

Todos hemos escuchado el dicho, "Usted aprende algo nuevo cada día". Esto también se aplica a nuestra fe. No importa dónde nos encontramos en nuestro camino de fe, siempre hay algo más que podemos aprender acerca ella. Arzobispo Gómez nos invita a conocer "lo que creemos como católicos y por qué creemos en esto. Reconozcamos y aprendamos que podemos hacer una gran diferencia en nuestra vida y en nuestro mundo."

El nos invita a hacer esto aprendiendo nuevas formas de orar, especialmente con el Evangelio, y desarrollar "el habito de aprendizaje a través del transcurso de nuestra vida."

El Concilio Vaticano Segundo nos dice que todos nosotros estamos llamados a la santidad, que estamos reservados por Dios. En otras palabras, esto significa que estamos llamados a ser santos. ¿Cómo podemos crecer en santidad y vivir como santos? Un camino es aprendiendo como profundizar nuestra relación con Dios a través de la oración y tratando de saber para que y porque nos llama El.

Las próximas semanas continuaremos esta pequeña reflexión acerca de cada una de las prioridades y como nosotros, el Pueblo de Dios podemos hacer vida estas prioridades en nuestra Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles.

Pueden encontrar esta Carta Pastoral en el sitio de internet de nuestra Arquidiócesis: www.la-archdiocese.org y hacer presionar en la página de la derecha titulada "Carta Pastoral del Arzobispo".

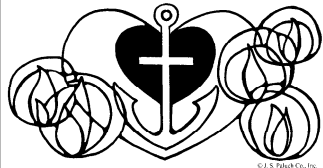

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Dios destina a Jeremías a ser profeta de las naciones (Jeremías 1:4-5, 17-19).

Salmo — Señor, tú eres mi esperanza (Salmo 71 [70]).

Segunda lectura — El amor con todas sus muchas facetas es la más importante de las virtudes (1 Corintios 12:31 — 13:13 [13:4-13]).

Evangelio — Jesús reclama que su misión salvífica es para todos los pueblos (Lucas 4:21-30).

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

3 de febrero de 2013

la fe, la esperanza, y el amor; pero el amor es la mayor de las tres.

— 1 Corintios 13:13

PLAN PASTORAL PARROQUIAL

Nuestra Parroquia del Perpetuo Socorro, está ahora poniendo en práctica lo que hemos escrito en nuestro Plan Pastoral Parroquial, por lo que atendiendo al Pilar #4 Servicio, la visión 2, meta #3 que nos invita a mantener informada sobre cuestiones espirituales, sociales y morales; compartimos contigo esta información importante: Si no tienes documentos legales para estar en este país y si la policía o inmigración viene a tu trabajo:

- Los agentes de inmigración deben tener una orden de registro firmada por un juez o la autorización del empleador para entrar a su lugar de trabajo.
- Si se trata de un lugar público, no necesitan esta orden.
- Mantenga la calma.
- No huya, pues puede interpretarse como admisión de que tiene algo que ocultar.
- No firme ningún documento hasta no solicitar un abogado.
