Dear Parishioners:

Some events of childhood become fixed in our minds and they act like icons. We can look at the scene on the screen of our memory, and it expands to reveal the layers and layers of love that our mothers showed us.

One such icon, if painted, would show a living room with a papa bear sized, red naugahyde easy chair in a corner. An eight year-old boy is flopped across it in a fetal position with his head on one arm rest and his lower legs and feet dangling over the other. His mother has balanced her right hip on the tiniest, remaining corner of the seat cushion by his thighs. Her right hand is gently caressing his forehead.

My mother seemed to have read my mind. I never told her that I was feeling ill; she just knew it. I never asked her to soothe me; she just did it. She likely had no time in her hectic life to attend to me at that moment; she just made it. I loved her love – never doubting that it was there. Some might say that I took it for granted. Words cannot express its importance to me or my gratitude for it.

I imagine that each of you have your own “icons” of your mothers’ love, revealing again the unwarranted graceful gift she offered you. Where does a mother’s love come from? I dare not pretend to know. But mothers know. It’s there! It wells up! It overflows!

As an enthusiast and observer of icons, I invite you to join me in delighting in the women who have meant the world to us – stay home moms, working moms, married moms, single moms, living moms, deceased moms – all our moms. Amazing women! Women who find a way to balance so much and still love and care and nurture.

Mom, I love you. Moms, we love you!

Msr. Dick Martini

Monsignor Richard Martini

COME, LORD JESUS

The first reading today may seem somewhat out of place. Doesn't the "feast of Stephen" evoke memories of the Christmas season, rather than Easter? But it is most relevant for the days after the Ascension. Jesus Christ, the Son of Man, stands at his Father's right hand to welcome Stephen into heaven. Indeed, that is why Jesus has gone before us—to welcome us into God's house.

In the second reading the focus on heavenly reward continues: the new day coming with its hope and expectation. There is also an echo here of Advent, but it is now the fulfillment of those hopes, the resolution of all questions and difficulties.

John's Gospel today is part of the section known as the "high priestly prayer" of Jesus. It was his prayer at the Last Supper as he prepared for his roles as priest and victim. But it is also his prayer as the glorified and ascended high priest, the giver of glory, the center of faith, and the master of his destiny and ours.

DID YOU KNOW?

Cell Phones: A mixed blessing

Cell phones with photographic capability are a great blessing but they can certainly be misused as well. Have a healthy suspicion of anyone using a cell phone in an awkward or unusual way. Be especially cognizant of any suspicious cell phone use in areas where people could be in various states of undress or where children are gathered. If you see someone using a cell phone in a way that appears suspicious, don't be afraid to ask what he or she is doing or to alert someone in a position of authority about your concerns. For a copy of the complete VIRTUS® article above "Taking A Closer Look at Cell Phone Video Voyeurism" email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

The Year of Faith

The final statement in the Apostles' Creed says: "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen."

The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Holy Trinity, is also known as the "Paraclete," which means "advocate," or "he who is called to one's side" (CCC 692). The Holy Spirit is called to our side to build, animate, and sanctify the Church (CCC 747) and continually inspires God's people and moves us to do God's will.

"Holy" means to be set apart for God. "Church" comes from the Greek "ekklesia," which is a combination of words meaning "to call out of," because we are called out of the world to be a people set apart for God. The word "catholic" comes from the Greek word "katholikos," which means "universal" in reference to all people of all nations being part of the Church. Notice how in the Creed it uses a lowercase "c" in catholic but a capital "c" in Church. Why do you think that is? Another thing to think about is a popular statement that says, "The Church doesn't have a mission. The mission has a Church." Based on this, why do you think it is important for the Church to exist and for what purpose? Remember the four aspects of the Church: it is one, it is holy, it is catholic, and it is apostolic.

The communion of saints, that is the unity of all the saints throughout all time, is an extension of the Church universal. They have been and still are members of the Church. They, like we do for each other, pray for us when we need God's help.

Christ gave the authority to his apostles to forgive sins when he appeared to them and breathed the Holy Spirit upon them in John 20:22-23. This speaks to the power of the sacraments of Baptism and of Penance (Reconciliation or Confession) to forgive us of our sins. "Christ who died for all men desires that in his Church the gates of forgiveness should always be open to anyone who turns away from sin." (CCC 982)

We, as an Easter people, believe in the resurrection of the dead because that is what Christ has promised us. He promised that he would raise us on the Last Day and that he is the way, the truth, and the life. "In death, the separation of the soul from the body, the human body decays and the soul goes to meet God, while awaiting its reunion with its glorified body" (CCC 997). The resurrection of the dead is the reunification of our souls with our glorified bodies. "Life everlasting" refers to the life that we will have with God for all eternity.

"In Hebrew, amen comes from the same root word as the word 'believe.' This root expresses solidarity, trustworthiness, faithfulness. And so we can understand why 'Amen' may express both God's faithfulness towards us and our trust in him." (CCC 1062) To believe is to say "amen."

More of the Church's teaching on this statement from the Creed can be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church numbers 683-1065.

Who knew that in the one minute it takes for us to say the Creed that we actually say so much? Our faith is so rich in teaching that we can spend a lot of time to unpack what we say and do and still find more treasures there! So go satisfy your curiosity and enjoy learning more about how God has been loving you through our faith. Happy Year of Faith!

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Lord Jesus Christ, Redeemer of the world, you have shouldered the burden of our weakness and borne our sufferings in your own passion and death. Hear this prayer for our sick brothers and sisters whom you have redeemed. Strengthen their hope of salvation and sustain them in body and soul. Amen.

FOR THE DECEASED:

Frances Ditomasso, Andrea Reyes, Rosalina Perez
 God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of your people, hear the prayers we offer for our departed brothers and sisters. Cleanse them of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Queridos feligreses;

Algunos eventos de nuestra niñez se fijan en nuestra mente y actúan como iconos.

Podemos ver la escena en la pantalla de nuestra memoria expandirse, para así revelar las capas y capas de amor que nuestras madres nos muestran.

En ese Icono, si estuviera pintado, nos enseñaría la sala de la casa con un papa del tamaño de un oso, una silla mecedora de vinyl roja en una esquina. Un niño de ocho años tratando de sentarse en posición fetal con su cabeza en un mango de la silla y sus piernas y pies colgando en el otro mango. Su mama acomodando su cadera derecha en la esquinita restante del cojín del asiento del sillón junto a sus piernas. Su mano derecha acariciando suavemente su frente.

Mi mama parecía leer mi mente. Nunca le dije que me sentía enfermo; ella ya lo sabía. Nunca le pedí que me consolara; solo lo hacía. Probablemente no tenía tiempo en su atareada vida de atenderme en ese momento; solo lo hizo. Me encantaba su amor, nunca dude que estaba ahí. Algunos podrían decir que lo tomé por hecho. Las palabras no pueden expresar esa importancia para mí o mi gratitud por ello.

Me imagino que cada uno de ustedes tiene sus propios "iconos" del amor de sus madres, revelando nuevamente el agraciado regalo injustificado que te ofreció. ¿De donde proviene el amor de una madre? No me atrevo a pretender saber, pero las madres saben. ¡Está ahí! ¡Es muchísimo! ¡Desborda!

Como entusiasta y observador de iconos, te invito a que me acompañes a deleitarnos en las mujeres quienes significan el mundo para nosotros. Madres que están en casa, las que trabajan, aquellas casadas, madres solteras, madres aun vivas, madres fallecidas, todas nuestras mamas. ¡Mujeres maravillosas! Mujeres que encuentran la manera de equilibrar tanto y aun aman, nos cuidan y nos nutren.

Madre, te amo. ¡Madres, las amamos!

Con Dios Todas Las Cosas son Posibles.

Msgr. Dick Martini

Monseñor Richard Martini.

FE ALADA

La fe da alas a la oración, sin ellas, no puede volar hasta el Cielo. — San Juan Climacus

¿Sabe Usted?

Los teléfonos móviles con posibilidad de enviar imágenes son una bendición a medias, también se usan de un modo malintencionado. Hay que tener una sospecha sana si se ve a alguien usando un móvil de un modo torpe o de una manera fuera de lo común. Hay que ser consciente de un uso sospechoso de los móviles en áreas donde las personas pueden estar en distintas fases de desnudez o donde hay niños reunidos. Si usted ve a alguien usando un teléfono de un modo sospechoso, no tenga miedo de confrontar a esa persona, o alerte a alguien con autoridad sobre sus sospechas. VAL VERDE

El grupo de oración de Val Verde te invita cada semana a reflexionar, orar y alabar al Señor todos los viernes a las 7:00 p.m. en el salón del Parque.

AÑO DE LA FE

El último artículo del Credo de los Apóstoles dice: "Creo en el Espíritu Santo. En la santa Iglesia católica, en la comunión de los santos, el perdón de los pecados, la resurrección de la carne y la vida eterna. Amén."

El Espíritu Santo, tercera persona de la Santísima Trinidad, es también conocido como el "Paráclito", que significa "Consolador", o "aquel que es llamado junto a uno" (CIC 692). El Espíritu Santo es llamado a construir, consolar y santificar la Iglesia (CIC 747) y continuamente inspira al pueblo de Dios y nos mueve a hacer la voluntad de Dios.

"Santo" significa ser parte de Dios. "Iglesia" viene del Griego "ekklessia", que es una combinación de palabras que significa "convocados a" o "llamados a", porque somos llamados por la Palabra para ser parte de Dios. La palabra "católico" viene del griego "katholikos", que significa "universal" y designa que todas las personas de todas las naciones son parte de la Iglesia. Observa como en el Credo usamos "c" minúscula en la palabra católico pero usamos "I" mayúscula en la palabra Iglesia. ¿Por qué piensas que hacemos esto? Otra de las cosas que es necesario pensar o reflexionar es sobre el enunciado que dice, "La Iglesia no tiene una misión. La misión tiene una Iglesia". Basándonos en esto, ¿Por qué piensas que es importante que la Iglesia exista y para que propósito? Recuerda los cuatro aspectos de la Iglesia: es una, santa, católica y apostólica.

La comunión de los santos, que es la unidad de todos los santos a través de todo el tiempo, es una prolongación de la Iglesia universal. Ellos han sido y continúan siendo miembros de la Iglesia. Ellos, como nosotros lo hacemos unos por otros, oran por nosotros cuando necesitamos la ayuda de Dios.

Cristo cuando se apareció, con su soplo de aliento les dio a los discípulos el Espíritu Santo que se posó sobre ellos y con ello la autoridad a sus apóstoles para perdonar los pecados. (Jn 20:22-23). Esto nos habla del poder del sacramento del Bautismo y de la Penitencia (Reconciliación o Confesión) que nos perdonan "los pecados". "Cristo que ha muerto por toda la humanidad, quiere que, en su Iglesia, estén siempre abiertas las puertas del perdón a cualquiera que vuelva del pecado" (CIC 982)
