CLERGY CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

The "Clergy Corner." Whenever I think of a "corner" I think of a square, with four corners, or four points. Since that's the case, I want to share with you some news about four clergy affiliated with our parish.

Let's begin with our pastor. Msgr. Martini dropped by to say "hi" and he looks very refreshed, even after only two months of his sabbatical, which he has been thoroughly enjoying. He told me that he begins his 30-day Ignatian retreat (an intensive retreat using the spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola) on Tuesday, September 10. Please keep him in your prayers, especially during this time.

The second priest I'd like to speak about is Fr. Oliver. Fr. Oliver has been visiting us from Nigeria for the past four years. This year he was with us since August 6, and he returned to his diocese in Nigeria on Tuesday, September 10. Thank you, Fr. Oliver, for all that you have done for our parish.

The third priest is Fr. Milo. He's been affiliated with this parish even longer than I have! For the past several years he has joined us in September for a month vacation and assist us with pastoral duties. He arrived on September 9, and will be with us through October 7. Please join me in welcoming back Fr. Milo!

Lastly, I would like to welcome our new Associate Pastor. Please join me in giving a very warm welcome to Fr. Tony! Originally from the Philippines, Fr. Pio Antonio Yllana has served for several years in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and will be celebrating Masses with us in both English and in Spanish.

So there you have it. The Clergy Corner with four points. It's not quite a square, but at least it has four points that I made about four priests. Please keep them, and all priests, in your prayers. Also, please pray for more vocations to the priesthood. We need more good men to discern the call to the ministerial priesthood, to be men configured to Christ, and to serve the Bride of Christ (the Church).

In Christ,

Fr. Raymond Marquez

Pray for us

...it all begins on Sunday

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to speak to you at the masses last Sunday.

I closed my talk by quoting the first item of "Our Vision" from the Pastoral Plan, "At Our Lady of Perpetual Help it, all begins on Sunday." Sunday is where the "body of Christ" comes together to pray, praise and prepare for the week ahead. I stated that it is my calling to make Sunday a great beginning for all who attend.

Music is one way to bring that about. I love a quote from Tom Ehrich (a writer, church consultant and Episcopal priest in Durham, N.C.) in an edition of "The Tidings", where he says, "Sunday is a time for singing... Sing hymns that people want to sing... Sing hymns that stir hearts, set toes to tapping, elicit tears, draw people close..." This is what I am thinking when I am planning music for Mass. The assembly is my primary concern and it is my hope that at least one musical moment will lift the spirit of all in the assembly, in some way.

Besides the choice of music, the "presentation" of the music is of the utmost importance. I will always be looking for talented singers and instrumentalists to help fulfill this goal. Please encourage anyone you know, who sings or plays an instrument, to contact me for an interview.

A LETTER FROM FR. OLIVER...

To God be all the Glory and Praise forevermore. I thank Him, the Almighty and maker of all things, for establishing this relationship between me and the entire OLPH Catholic Community.

I appreciate too the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, particularly the Archbishop and the Vicar for Clergy. Next are my brother Priests who are assigned to co-ordinate activities in the Parish, namely; Monsignor Richard Martini, Fathers Albert Avenido, Raymond Marquez, and Anthony Yllana. They indeed made me part of their team.

I cannot forget the Parishioners and the Pastoral Centre Staff. I experience a welcoming and generous community of God's people in OLPH. I found a people who never tire in showing God's love to everybody who comes their way. Many of the Parishioners went the extra mile to make me feel at home away from home.

I appreciate too the spirit of the voluntary participation in the different ministries of the Church's Liturgical and Social lives. I notice that almost every Parishioner, including school children are ready and willing to give their services whenever same are needed in order to make sure that all things move well in the Parish. I honestly admire this spirit. Good job, please keep it up and God bless you all. Amen.

How is someone supposed to receive Holy Communion?

According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), "It is not permitted for the faithful to take the consecrated Bread or the sacred chalice by themselves and, still less, to hand them on from one to another among themselves. The norm established for the Dioceses of the United States of America is that Holy Communion is to be received standing, unless an individual member of the faithful wishes to receive Communion while kneeling.

When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister. The consecrated host may be received either on the tongue or in the hand, at the discretion of each communicant. When Holy Communion is received under both kinds, the sign of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood." (GIRM §160)

In other words, when receiving Communion under the species of bread the communicant bows, and then, depending upon the individual, receives Communion either standing or kneeling and can receive it on either the hands or the tongue. When receiving under the species of wine, the communicant bows and receives the chalice to drink a little from the chalice, then returns the chalice to the minister (GIRM §286).

The important thing to remember is that one RECEIVES Communion. There is a difference between RECEIVING and TAKING. Communion is a gift GIVEN to us by Christ, whom the priest represents during the celebration of the sacraments. The people therefore RECEIVE Communion from the minister, either ordained or lay. For the reason of RECEIVING Communion, the U.S. Bishops stated that "The communicant, including the extraordinary minister, is never allowed to self-communicate, even by means of intinction. Communion under either form, bread or wine, must always be given by an ordinary or extraordinary minister of Holy Communion." (Norms for the Distribution of Holy Communion under Both Kinds §50)

Again, the faithful are invited to RECEIVE Holy Communion as a gift from Jesus Christ, not TAKE it as if Jesus owes it to us. Our outward actions reflect our interior disposition. Communion is a gift that we receive, and we are thankful for it. The next time you go up to receive Communion, remember how it is a gift to each of us who receive it!

If you have any questions that you would like answered, please e-mail me at FrRay@olphscv.org. The most common questions will be addressed in these upcoming weeks. Until next time.

Fr. Raymond Marquez

DID YOU KNOW?

Resources to Help Keep Kids Safe

BIBLE STUDY WITH DR. BILL CREASY

Dr. Bill Creasy, one of the most accomplished and entertaining Bible teachers of our generation will soon begin an in-depth study of the Bible, Genesis through Revelation. The classes will be on Sunday evenings starting September 22nd, at St. John Eudes Church in Chatsworth. Dr. Creasy will also be holding classes at St. Bede the Venerable Church in La Canada on Monday evenings starting September 23rd.

LAVISH FORGIVENESS

Moses appeals to God for compassion in today's first reading. The point of Moses' pleas is not to provide a blueprint for pacifying an angry God, but to demonstrate that no matter our sin and its grievousness, God will always forgive.

In his Letter to Timothy, Paul uses himself, the great sinner, as an example of just how great is God's forgiveness. Finally, today's Gospel parables create a mural of God's forgiving love. Like a diligent housekeeper, a good shepherd, a loving father, God goes out of the way to recover the lost and to forgive. By pointing out that the woman leaves her nine silver pieces, that the shepherd leaves his ninety-nine sheep waiting, and the father leaves his elder son upset, Jesus urges us to abandon a stingy view of life. If God can be so generous, so forgiving, and so loving to those deemed unworthy, we must act likewise.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Please remember in your prayers all of the seriously ill or deceased members of our parish, for whom we pray at Sunday Mass. Please call the Pastoral Center on Monday to include a name for the following weekend's bulletin.

ESQUINA DEL SACERDOTE

La “Esquina del Sacerdote.” Cuando pienso en una “esquina”, pienso en un cuadrado con cuatro esquinas, o cuatro puntos. Como ese es el caso, quiero compartir con ustedes algunas noticias acerca de cuatro sacerdotes relacionados con nuestra parroquia.

Empecemos con nuestro pastor. Monseñor Martini pasó por aquí a saludar y se ve muy renovado, aunque solo han pasado dos meses de su tiempo sabático, el cual está disfrutando mucho. Me dijo que va a empezar sus Ejercicios Ignacianos de un mes (es un retiro intensivo usando los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio de Loyola) el martes, 10 de septiembre. Por favor oren por él, especialmente durante este tiempo. Los retiros largos suelen ser un reto, pero dan mucho fruto; y cambian a quien los hace, ayudándole a ser cada vez más como Dios quiere que sea.

El segundo sacerdote de quien quiero hablar es el Padre Oliver. El P. Oliver ha estado visitándonos desde Nigeria por tres años. Este año ha estado con nosotros desde el 6 de agosto, pero regresará a su diócesis en Nigeria el martes 10 de septiembre. Gracias, P. Oliver, por todo lo que has hecho por nuestra parroquia. ¡Que tengas un buen viaje y nos vemos en tu próxima visita!

El tercer sacerdote es el Padre Milo. El ha estado unido con esta parroquia por más tiempo que yo. En años anteriores nos ha acompañado durante un mes de vacaciones en septiembre. Y, lo hemos visto caminando por ahí y ayudando en el BBQ. El llega el 9 de septiembre, y estará con nosotros hasta el 7 de octubre. Por favor, ayúdenme a darle la bienvenida.

Por ultimo, quisiera presentarles a nuestro nuevo “Pastor Asociado”. Como se habrán dado cuenta, en los meses anteriores hemos estado un poco “cortos de personal”, pero desde la semana pasada, tenemos tres sacerdotes de tiempo completo en OLPH. ¡Démosle una calurosa bienvenida al Padre Toni! El es originario de Filipinas. El P. Pío Antonio Yllana, ha estado sirviendo por varios años en la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles y estará celebrando la Eucaristía con nosotros tanto en inglés como en español.

Así que aquí la tienen, una “Esquina del Sacerdote” con cuatro puntos. No es completamente cuadrada, pero por lo menos tiene cuatro puntos, acerca de cuatro sacerdotes. Por favor oren por ellos, y por todos los sacerdotes. Y oren también por más vocaciones sacerdotales. Necesitamos más hombres Buenos que discernan la llamada al sacerdocio ministerial, para que sean hombres configurados con Cristo, y para servir a la Esposa de Cristo (la Iglesia) a través de nuestra Arquidiócesis y viene ahora de San Alberto Magno en Rancho Domínguez. Por favor démosle una cordial bienvenida al Padre Tony.

En Cristo,

Padre Raymond Marquez

TORRE DE LA NUEVA IGLESIA

Agradecemos a todas las personas que se han registrado para ayudarnos a construir la torre de nuestra nueva Iglesia. Ahora tenemos 35 personas que estarán apoyándonos, sin embargo necesitamos más ayuda.

Por favor recuerda registrarte en el libro de donaciones que tenemos después de cada una de las misas de español.

Solo necesitas poner tu nombre y dirección, no es necesario anotar la cantidad que estás dando.

Nuestra meta es poder conseguir 100 personas que nos ayuden con sus donativos a construir la torre de la Iglesia en donde estará la campana que cada domingo nos recordará que Cristo nos llama a compartir su mesa.

¡Yo creo que si lo podemos lograr la meta o quizás podemos superar la meta!

AÑO DE FE

¿Cómo debemos recibir la Sagrada Comunión?

Según el Instructivo General del Misal Romano (IGMR), “No está permitido a los fieles que tomen el Pan consagrado o el santo Cáliz por ellos mismos y, mucho menos, que lo pasen de uno a otro entre ellos. La norma establecida por la Diócesis de los Estados Unidos de América es que la Sagrada Comunión se reciba de pie, a menos que alguno de los fieles desee recibir la Comunión arrodillado.

Cuando se recibe la Sagrada Comunión, quien comulga debe hacer una inclinación con la cabeza ante el Sacramento como gesto de reverencia y recibe el Cuerpo de Cristo de manos del ministro. La hostia consagrada se puede recibir ya sea en la lengua o en la mano, según desee cada persona que comulga. Cuando la Sagrada Comunión se recibe bajo las dos especies, el gesto de reverencia también se hace antes de recibir la Preciosa Sangre” (IGMR §160).

En otras palabras, cuando se recibe la Comunión bajo la especie del pan, quien comulga inclina la cabeza y, después, dependiendo de la persona, recibe la Comunión ya sea de pie o arrodillado y puede recibirla en las manos o en la lengua. Cuando se recibe bajo la especie del vino, quien comulga hace la reverencia y recibe el cáliz para beber un poco del cáliz, después devuelve el cáliz al ministro (IGMR §128).

Lo importante es recordar que uno RECIBE la Comunión. Hay diferencia entre RECIBIR y TOMAR. La Comunión es un regalo RECIBIDO por nosotros que nos da Cristo, a quien el sacerdote representa durante la celebración de los sacramentos. La gente, por lo tanto, RECIBE la Comunión del ministro, sea ordenado o laico. Para RECIBIR la Comunión, los Obispos de Estados Unidos declararon lo siguiente: “quien comulga, incluyendo al ministro extraordinario, no se le permite al mismo darse la comunión, ni por medio de intinción. La comunión bajo la especie ya sea del pan o el vino, debe ser dada por un ministro de la Sagrada Comunión ya sea ordinario o extraordinario.” (Normas de la Distribución de la Sagrada Comunión bajo las ambas Especies §50).

Una vez más, se invita a los fieles a RECIBIR la Sagrada Comunión como un regalo de Jesucristo, no a TOMAR este regalo como si Jesús nos lo debiera. Nuestras acciones externas reflejan nuestra disposición interior. La Comunión es un regalo que recibimos y debemos estar agradecidos por ella. ¡La próxima vez que recibas la Comunión, recuerda que es un regalo que cada uno de nosotros recibe!

Si tienes alguna pregunta que quisieras que te respondiera, por favor escríbeme un correo electrónico a mi dirección FrRay@olphscv.org. Las preguntas más comunes se tocarán en las siguientes semanas. ¡Hasta la próxima!
