CLERGY CORNER

Dear Parishioners:

The half-way point of my sabbatical occurred at the end of the first week of September. Shortly thereafter I began what I consider the center piece of this time away from ministry, namely the 30 Day Retreat or Ignatian Exercises. It is not so much that I am in silence for more than four weeks – although I am – but rather it is having the blessing of days and days of solitude.

Perhaps this little incident can illustrate the power of solitude. As I was on the shuttle from the Denver airport and headed to the Sacred Heart Jesuit Retreat Center in Sedalia, someone named Alice spoke incessantly from the front passenger seat. At one point the driver, who was obviously familiar with this route and with Alice, leaned his head toward her and placed his right hand on her arm whispering loud enough for all of us to hear, “Do you want to know where these people are headed? They’re going on a silent retreat!” The giggles were a bit muffled throughout the van, but nothing would deter Alice. As the conversation continued, I learned that the stranger next to me was Sr. Sharon from Austin, Texas. At some point, perhaps trying to explain a silent retreat to Alice, the sister expounded, “Someone once said, ‘In solitude all things find their proper emphasis.’ ” I’m not sure that such a thought was my intention going into the retreat, but if it proves to be one of the outcomes, then I’ll gladly welcome it.

All this solitude allows my pastoral love for you to swell. I didn’t think that I would miss you so much. I regret not being present at typical OLPH events (worshipping with you and greeting you on Sundays, officiating at weddings and quinceñeras, welcoming our new music and liturgy director, and opening the new school year) as well as at the special parish gatherings (the 69th annual Barbecue, the Parish Night at Dodger Stadium, and the evening of laughter called A Comedy Writer Finds God.) One thing that I don’t miss: the excessive heat of Santa Clarita. But I hear that it has been a relatively mild summer and September so far.

So pray for me in my solitude and in my prayer. I know that you haven’t been too worried about me in the midst of the Colorado floods since you’ve seen me walk on water. Seriously, it rained the day that I arrived – September 10 -- and didn’t stop for a week, but the much publicized flooding is not near here. In fact, at the retreat center it was mostly a pleasant sounding, gentle rain.

You are in my prayers and in my thoughts. (Some of those thoughts, by the way, are being engendered by a book titled Rebuilt by Michael White and Tom Corcoran.)

I’m grateful to Fr. Albert for filling in during my absence. His presence affords me the opportunity to enjoy this four-month break from ministry.

Miss you,
Fr. Dick Martini

THE YEAR OF FAITH

What were some of the biggest changes that the Second Vatican Council brought about?

That's a big question!

The Second Vatican Council (a.k.a., Vatican II) was called by Pope John XXIII, and continued with Pope Paul VI, to reinvigorate the life of the Church. The spirit of "aggiornamento," or a bringing up to date, was part of the whole Council. This does not mean that the theology of the Church was outdated. Rather, it called for opening wide the windows and bringing in some fresh air into the life of the Church. It called for further development of ecclesiology (theology about the Church) both within itself and with other Christian traditions (ecumenism) and non-Christian religions (interreligious dialogue). It called for a return to the sources when investigating the reason practices were done. It called for a deeper connection with and appreciation for the Mass. It called for a deeper knowledge and love of Scripture. It encouraged the laity to accept their role as missionaries and evangelizers. It called for, what has recently been known as, a New Evangelization, to proclaim the Gospel in new ways to a new generation of people. It called for many things, but one of the major things it did was to bring the Church back into a dialogue with the modern world.

Scripture shows us that we are to live in the world, but to not be of the world. That means that we must live in the world but not be so attached to it that we forsake our relationship with God. It also means that we must be able to help the people in the world to come to know the love of God for them and how He calls them into a relationship with Himself. This means that we must be able to engage the world in dialogue through various means. This means that we must also know our faith, the reason behind our practices and beliefs, and most importantly have a relationship with God.

So what were some of the biggest changes that Vatican II brought about? That answer lies in how we engage our faith and how our faith causes us to engage the world.

If you have any questions that you would like answered, please e-mail me at FrRay@olphscv.org. I will continue to take questions and answer them through the remainder of this month.

Fr. Raymond Marquez

DID YOU KNOW?

Nearly 200,000 Adults Have Undergone Child Abuse Prevention Training

Nearly 200,000 adults who work with children and youth have undergone child abuse prevention training through the VIRTUS program. The mandatory training helps adults to identify the types of inappropriate behavior that can lead to abuse. A key part of keeping our children safe means knowing how to prevent abuse. To learn more, please contact your parish office or call Joan Vienna, coordinator of the Archdiocese's Safeguard the Children Program, 213-637-7227.

SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color or national and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, sex or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs; although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

ESQUINA DEL SACERDOTE

Queridos feligreses,

Mi tiempo de descanso sabático llegó a la mitad en la primera semana del mes de septiembre. Un poco después, comenzó lo que considero el centro de este tiempo de retirada temporal del ministerio, los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio de 30 días. No es tanto el estar en silencio por cuatro semanas – aunque así es -, sino la bendición de días y días de soledad.

Quizá este pequeño incidente puede ser ejemplo del poder de la soledad. Cuando estaba en el camión, yendo del aeropuerto de Denver a la Casa de Retiros del Sagrado Corazón de los Jesuitas en Sedalia, una mujer llamada Alice hablaba sin parar desde el asiento del pasajero de enfrente. De repente, el chofer, que obviamente conocía este camino y a Alice, se acercó un poco a ella, puso su mano derecha en su brazo y le dijo al oído, lo bastante fuerte como para que los demás nos enteráramos, “¿Quieres saber a donde van estas personas? ¡Van a un retiro en silencio!” Hubo algunas risitas por todo el camión, pero nada detenía a Alice. Mientras continuó la conversación, me di cuenta que la desconocida que iba junto a mí era la Hermana Sharon, de Austin, Texas. Y, en un momento, quizá tratando de explicarle a Alice lo que es un retiro en silencio, la Hermana dijo: “En la soledad, todas las cosas encuentran su énfasis apropiado.” No estoy seguro si esa era mi intención al venir al retiro, pero si ese es uno de sus resultados, será bienvenido.

Toda esta soledad permite que mi amor de pastor por ustedes se inflame. No pensé que los extrañaría tanto. Lamento no estar presente en los acontecimientos típicos de OLPH (saludándolos y celebrando con ustedes los domingos, celebrando bodas y quinceañeras, dando la bienvenida a nuestro nuevo director de música y liturgia, y comenzando el curso escolar), así como en los eventos especiales (el BBQ número 69, la noche de la parroquia en el estadio de los dodgers, y el evento cómico de “Un escritor de comedias encuentra a Dios). Una cosa que no extraño es el excesivo calor de Santa Clarita. Pero, he oído que ha sido relativamente moderado en el verano y septiembre.

Así que sigan orando por mí, en mi tiempo de soledad y oración. Sé que no se han preocupado demasiado por mí en medio de las inundaciones del Río Colorado, porque ya me han visto caminar sobre el agua. En serio, llovió desde el día que llegué – 10 de septiembre – y no paró por una semana, pero las inundaciones que han salido en la TV no son cerca de aquí. De hecho, en la casa de retiros, ha habido sólo lloviznas con un sonido relajante.

Están en mis oraciones y en mis pensamientos (Algunos de esos pensamientos están siendo generados por un libro llamado “Reconstruida” (Rebuilt – en inglés), escrito por Michael White y Tom Corcoran).

Estoy muy agradecido con el Padre Albert, por cubrir mi ausencia. Su esfuerzo me brinda la oportunidad de disfrutar de este descanso por cuatro meses del ministerio.

Los extraño,
Fr. Dick Martini.

Agradecemos a todas las personas que se han registrado para ayudarnos a construir la torre de nuestra nueva Iglesia. Ahora tenemos 35 personas que estarán apoyándonos, sin embargo necesitamos más ayuda.

Por favor recuerda registrarte en el libro de donaciones que tenemos después de cada una de las misas de español.

Solo necesitas poner tu nombre y dirección, no es necesario anotar la cantidad que estás dando.

Nuestra meta es poder conseguir 100 personas que nos ayuden con sus donativos a construir la torre de la Iglesia en donde estará la campana que cada domingo nos recordará que Cristo nos llama a compartir su mesa.

¡Yo creo que si lo podemos lograr la meta o quizás podemos superar la meta!

AÑO DE FE

¿Cuáles son algunos de los más grandes cambios que realizó el Concilio Vaticano Segundo?

¡Esta es una excelente pregunta!

El Concilio Vaticano Segundo (C.V. II) fue convocado por el Papa Juan XXII, y continuado por el Papa Paulo VI, para revitalizar la vida de nuestra Iglesia. El espíritu de "aggiornamento", o de actualización, fue parte de toda la realización del Concilio. Esto no quiere decir que la teología de la iglesia estuviera obsoleta. Más bien, pido que se abrieran de par en par las ventanas y dejáramos entrar aire fresco a la vida de nuestra Iglesia. Hizo un llamado para desarrollar más la eclesiología (teología sobre la Iglesia) tanto al interior como hacia otras tradiciones cristianas (ecumenismo) y las religiones no cristianas (diálogo interreligioso). Realizó un llamado para regresar a las fuentes para investigar las razones por las que se realizaron algunas prácticas. Pidió que se hiciera una conexión más profunda sobre la celebración Eucarística. Hace un llamado a conocer y amar más la Sagrada Escritura. Alentó a los laicos a aceptar su papel como misioneros y evangelizadores. Pidió, lo que se ha conocido recientemente, una Nueva Evangelización, para proclamar el Evangelio en nuevas formas para una nueva generación de personas. Se hizo un llamado a muchas otras cosas, pero una de las más grandes fue el llevar a la hacia un dialogo con el mundo moderno.

La Escritura nos dice que estamos viviendo en el mundo, sin ser del mundo. Esto significa que debemos vivir en el mundo pero no ser tan apegados a lo que nos aleja de la relación con Dios. También significa que debemos ser capaces de ayudar a la gente de nuestra época a conocer que pueden tener una relación de amor con Dios. Esto quiere decir, que tenemos que ser capaces de envolver al mundo en el diálogo a través de los diversos medios que se nos presentan. Quiere decir también que debemos conocer nuestra fe, la razón detrás de nuestras prácticas y creencias, y lo más importante, que necesitamos tener una relación con Dios.

Entonces, ¿Cuáles fueron algunos de los mayores cambios que propició el Concilio Vaticano II? La respuesta radica en cómo nos comprometemos con nuestra fe y como nuestra fe nos compromete a participar en el mundo.

Si tienen alguna pregunta que les gustaría que fuera respondida a través de este boletín, pueden enviarme un correo electrónico a FrRay@olphscv.org la pregunta más común puede ayudarnos a muchos otros a entender mas nuestra fe. Hasta el próximo boletín.

Padre Raymond Marquez
